

British Psychiatrists Protest

Special to The New York Times

LONDON, Sept. 17 — Forty-four members of the department of psychiatry at Shiefeld University have called upon psychiatrists throughout the world to express their opposition to the Soviet Government's practice of sending dissenters to mental hospitals.

In a letter to The Times of London yesterday, they asked that psychiatrists discuss the matter with Soviet colleagues and raise the issue at international conferences. They cited the case of Mr. Bukovsky.
